

PIZZATHON

The farm-to-table pizza competition

Engage grades 3-5 Iowa students in the science and social studies related processes of producing the ingredients of a pizza with a procurement presentation project. Use curated lesson plans and resources to teach the concepts necessary to complete the project.

Final projects may be entered in the Pizza-thon competition for a chance to win a prize for the class!

www.iowaagliteracy.org | info@iowaagliteracy.org

CONTEST RULES:

All students and classrooms in grades 3-5 in Iowa are welcome to participate. Students can work individually or in groups to create presentations that meet the following requirements:

- Presentation may be poster or slideshow presentation
- Presentations must discuss the origin of at least four ingredients used in a pizza
- Information should be accurate and show proof of learning
- Presentations should use correct spelling and grammar
- Presentations should be eye-catching and visually appealing

PRIZES:

- 1st place:
 - A pizza party for the class
 - Printed certificate
- 2nd place:
 - Printed certificate
- 3rd place:
 - Printed certificate

TIMELINE:

- Registration opens February 1
- Registration closes April 1
- Winner announced April 25
- Pizza parties awarded in May